

JOE OESER

Blues/Americana songwriter, singer and multi-instrumentalist Joe Oeser has been a staple of the Colorado music scene for over 4 decades and regularly performs as both a soloist and with a backup band all around the Colorado front range.

Fans of the live music scene in Colorado have caught Joe performing at one of his intimate "Cup-a-Joe" performances, or one of many large venues such as Red Rocks-Denver, Surf Ballroom-Clear Lake, Swallow Hill-Denver, Taste of Colorado- Denver, Cherry Creek Arts Festival-Denver, Dragon Boat Festival-Denver, Botanic Gardens-Denver, Cedaredge Applefest-Cedaredge.

You can also keep an ear out for Joe over the airwaves on stations such as KAFM 88.1 @ The Radio Room-Grand Junction, KRFC 88.9 Live At Lunch-Fort Collins, KVNF 90.9-Paonia, KVNF 89.1-Montrose, or KUVO 89.3 Live on the Air-Denver.

Joe not only has 6 albums to his credit but he has had the privilege of collaborating and sharing the stage with music royalty such as Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Emmylou Harris, Tab Benoit, Marcia Ball, Doobie Brothers, Journey, Charlie Musselwhite, Buddy Whittington (John Mayall-guitarist) and many other notable artists.

Get ready for Joe's latest project "Americana Jukebox" which was produced by himself, Pablo G and co-production by Colin Bricker. All the songs were recorded, produced, mixed and mastered at Mighty Fine Productions in Denver, Colorado.

If you haven't attended a Joe Oeser/Cup-a-Jo performance, you are missing out !
