

Cup-a -Jo

About the Band

Cup-a-Jo has been playing Colorado since 1996, and has established themselves as one of the finest acts in the area with their solid musicianship and exciting live performances. Their musical styling's include Funk, Chicago Blues, New Orleans R&B, Jazz, and some early Rock n" Roll. Besides playing local nightclubs, the band has been featured at notable regional festivals, as a support act for dozens of national touring acts like, Chris Duarte, Charlie Musselwhite, Tab Benoit, Lonnie Brooks, and Marcia Ball to name a few.

With three released CD's under their belt, the band has been featured in local and national musical magazines'.

The band is constantly growing, and strives to always give their audiences something different and refreshing at every show.

A Cup-A-Jo performance will feature many styles of music, performed with their own creative interpretations. The band strives to adapt to every situation, performing electrically or acoustically, depending on the venue.
